Content: This Saturday March 24th please Join Me along with Students, Teachers, and Parents for "The March For Our Lives" Starting at John Prince Park @10am This is a National Movement and I am blessed to have planned one to be here in Palm Beach County with the help of @gypsy1228 @lynrachel And more... this movement means so much to me! This movement has bought tears to my eyes, and change into my life, I hope on Saturday March 24th we all put our differences aside and come together in solidarity and support for those who have ever went through a shooting and a call to action. The City Of Lake Worth has been completely supportive of this, the Palm Beach County Sheriffs office as well want to make sure that we are safe! If you do not work I want to see you all there! Honestly this movement has bought so much heart break to others and myself I can only imagine what the parents are going through, and if this was a situation that happened in a school that you were in at the time of ANY of these shooting I am 100% sure that you would want others to put our differences aside gather along for something that we believe in. See you all there! #neveragain #marchforourlives #bethechangeinspired #parklandshooting #strong #unity #solidarity
